

From Under The Eastern Star

Mt Pleasant Lodge Newsletter

February 2019

Brethren, and we thought our January meeting was a good night, I think February has set a very high bar for future meetings. I'm feeling a bit of trepidation as we seem to be rising to a crescendo ☺...

What a wonderful display of Freemasonry at work as we eagerly welcomed Bro Jack Hakopa into Freemasonry in general and proudly into our Mount Pleasant Lodge. Jack was a great candidate during his initiation. He listened, he watched, he partook, and his laconic personality endeared him to all in attendance. Welcome Brother Jack to our "Masonic Family".

A big Thank You to all the officers for their dedicated work in preparing for the Initiation. I am blessed to have such a talented team of Officers and Members around me as Worshipful Master.

JD Bro Wayne Greenley, Bro Jack Hakopa, Worshipful Master WBro Trevor Green, SD WBro Rod Lancashire

To be able to sit in the East is observe 47 others enjoying our initiation ceremony and to see them sit up and take notice when WBro Victor Chandler had them spellbound with the Masonic Education "What is Freemasonry", it was a night I will never forget! I hope you will find a dark room to contemplate his dissertation. Thank you all.

I thank the brethren that stayed behind after our supper to assist with the clean-up. This combined with the DC calling for the Tylers toast at 10.30, we all got away at a reasonable hour.

Out and About

Despite the threat (media beat up - easy to say in retrospect) of cyclone OMA, our Breakfast in the park at Daisy Hill Conservation Park turned out to be a beautiful morning with a great attendance. We raised $480.00 for the morning. A great effort and I thank Maureen & Jim Reid, Mike Mifsud, Helen and Erin David and Jan, Mikes assistant cook and all who attended and helped.

Karen and I are off on our first 'retirement trip' to central Qld, so my visitations will be down a bit. See you at the Practice or our Meeting, stay safe and be close to your Families

Kind Regards,
WBro Trevor Green, Worshipful Master
