- No, the purpose of this promotion is for lodges to generate their own applicants from their own sources.

A wide-angle, low-angle shot of a grand, empty hall, likely a legislative chamber or a large assembly room. The ceiling is a complex, repeating pattern of octagons and circles, creating a textured, vaulted appearance. The walls are light-colored with decorative moldings and several windows with vertical blinds. The floor is covered in a dark, patterned carpet, with a prominent checkered runner leading towards the front of the room. Rows of dark wooden benches are arranged on both sides of the central aisle. In the foreground, a small table holds a blue flag and a red and white striped flag. The overall atmosphere is formal and quiet. The text "THANK YOU" is centered in a large, white, sans-serif font.
